About the Course

Overall Goal

The objective of the course is to expand specific knowledge on gender related issues with the view to applying gender perspective in mediation processes, to deepen understanding of the role women could play in conflict prevention and conflict resolution, and enhance specific skills in gender-sensitive conflict analysis and mediation process design.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Apply gender-sensitive approach in conflict analysis and conflict monitoring by using relevant tools and skills;
- Differentiate the impact of conflict for different gender groups, and better understand conflict drivers, actors and dynamics;
- Design inclusive mediation processes and use various modalities for greater inclusion of women;
- Apply a range of techniques, practical measures and good practices to incorporate gender-relevant language in cease-fire and peace agreements;
- Address conflict-related sexual violence (CRSV) while drafting and negotiating cease-fire, security arrangements and peace agreements;
- Deal with challenges in integrating gender perspective in mediation.

Target Audience

The course program is designed for mid and senior level civil affairs, political affairs and other civilian, military and police officers working in field and peacekeeping operations, as well as those working in public sector, non-governmental organizations, academic institutions, or preparing to serve in peace operations. The program is balanced between the operational and tactical level.

Content and Structure

The virtual course will take place over a period of two days, from 10 – 11 November 2021 via the online platform Zoom. The training will consist of lectures and facilitated discussions by senior experts and practitioners in the field, and the activities are devised to be highly interactive through discussions, Q&A sessions, group work, role-play and hands-on exercises and assignments. A virtual space will be provided for group discussions and best practices and experience sharing among the participants under the guidance of the senior mentor.

Upon completion of the course, certificates of participation will be issued in PDF, and a hard copy can be sent via post upon request.
